We are pleased to welcome our Minister, Rev Fiona Calverey, fully recovered from COVID, and we look forward to this time of worship with her lead and sharing Holy Communion.

On 30 June, at the Methodist Conference in Leeds, Rev Fiona was received into full Connexion as a Presbyterian Minister in the Methodist Church of Great Britain.

After worship, please stay for fellowship and refreshments served by Sheila.

Thank you for more volunteers adding their names to the coffee rota. The rota is on the notice board in the inner foyer. Thank you to the stewards for stepping in last week.

- Thank you for your prayers. Prayer cards available in the foyer. Keep it up! Julie Woodford has agreed to be our 'prayer champion'. If you would like to be part of the prayer chain and receive specific prayer requests each day of the club by email please speak to Julie.
- 'Let them eat cake' ... please! A request to our bakers – home baking would be gladly received for lunches for volunteers; for the parent and toddler café at the Parish Hall and for the Friday evening celebration. (Cakes straight from your freezer would be welcomed too!)
